  - c. To have a trial by an impartial jury;
  - d. To confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses and produce other evidence in his defense;
  - e. To not be compelled to incriminate himself.

4. The defendant is not under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or narcotics. He is certain that he is in full possession of her senses and mentally competent to understand this Plea Agreement and the guilty plea hearing which will follow.

5. The defendant has had the benefit of legal counsel in negotiating this Plea Agreement. He has discussed the facts of the case with his attorney, and his attorney has explained to the defendant the essential legal elements of the criminal charge(s) which has/have been brought against him. The defendant's attorney has also explained to the defendant his understanding of the United States' evidence.

6. The defendant understands that the United States has the burden of proving each of the legal elements of the criminal charge(s) beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant and his counsel have discussed possible defenses to the charge(s). The defendant believes that his attorney has represented him faithfully, skillfully, and diligently, and he is completely satisfied with the legal advice of his attorney.

7. A separate document, entitled Factual Resume, will be submitted to the Court as evidence at the guilty plea hearing. The Factual Resume is incorporated by reference into this Plea Agreement. The defendant and the United States agree that the Factual Resume is true and correct.

- d. A mandatory special assesement of $100.00.

SENTENCING

10. The Court will impose the sentence in this case. The United States Sentencing Guidelines apply in an advisory manner to this case. The defendant has reviewed the application of the Guidelines with her attorney and understands that no one can predict with certainty what the sentencing range will be in this case until after a pre-sentence investigation has been completed and the Court has ruled on the results of that investigation. The defendant understands that at sentencing, the Court may not necessarily sentence the defendant in accordance with the Guidelines. The defendant understands that he will not be allowed to withdraw his guilty plea if the applicable guideline range is higher than expected, if the Court departs from the applicable advisory guideline range, or if the Court imposes a sentence notwithstanding the Guidelines.

11. The United States may provide all relevant sentencing information to the Probation Office for purposes of the pre-sentence investigation. Relevant sentencing information includes, but is not limited to, all facts and circumstances of this case and information concerning the defendant's conduct and background.

12. The defendant understands that this Plea Agreement does not create any right to be sentenced in accordance with the Sentencing Guidelines, or below or within any particular guideline range, and fully understands that determination of the sentencing range or guideline level, or the actual sentence imposed, is solely the discretion of the Court.

13. Both the defendant and the United States are free to allocute fully at the time of sentencing.

14. The defendant agrees to tender $200.00 to the U.S. District Court Clerk in satisfaction of the mandatory special assessment in this case. The United States reserves the right to withdraw any favorable recommendations it may agree to within this document if the defendant fails to pay the special assessment prior to or at the time of his sentencing.

UNITED STATES' OBLIGATIONS

15. The United States will not bring any additional charges against the defendant related to the facts underlying the Information. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Alabama and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities.

16. The United States will recommend to the Court that the defendant be sentenced at the low end of the applicable advisory sentencing guideline range as determined by the Court.

APPLICATION OF U.S.S.G. § 5K1.1 AND/OR FED.R.CRIM.P. 35

17. If the DEFENDANT agrees to cooperate with the United States, he agrees to the following terms and conditions:

- a. The DEFENDANT shall fully, completely, and truthfully respond to all questions put to him/her by law enforcement authorities regarding the underlying facts of the offense(s) with which he is charged, as well as the underlying facts of any criminal offense(s), state or federal, of which he has information or knowledge.
- b. The DEFENDANT acknowledges that he understands that he shall provide truthful and complete information regarding any offense about which he has knowledge or information regardless of whether or not law enforcement authorities question him/her specifically about any such offense. This provision requires the DEFENDANT to divulge all information available to him/her even when law enforcement authorities do not know about the DEFENDANT's involvement, knowledge or information relating to any particular offense. This requirement extends to any and all persons about whom the DEFENDANT has such knowledge or information.

- c. The DEFENDANT agrees to cooperate completely with all law enforcement authorities in any matters to which his/her cooperation may be deemed relevant by any law enforcement authority. The DEFENDANT agrees to fully comply with all instructions from law enforcement authorities regarding the specific assistance she shall provide. This includes, but is not limited to, consenting to monitored and/or recorded telephone conversations, participating in undercover operations, testifying completely and truthfully before any grand jury, at any pre-trial proceeding, during any trial, and any post-trial proceeding.
- d. If the United States deems it necessary, the DEFENDANT may be required to take a polygraph examination(s) which will be administered by a government polygrapher. The DEFENDANT agrees that the results of any polygraph examination may be used by the United States in its evaluation of whether or not there has been substantial assistance, and are admissible at sentencing to rebut an assertion by the DEFENDANT of bad faith or unconstitutional motive on the part of the United States.
- e. The DEFENDANT agrees to turn over to the United States any and all documents, tapes and other tangible objects which are in his/her possession or under his/her control and which are relevant to his/her participation in and knowledge of criminal activities whether relating to the charged offense or not. This obligation is a continuing one and includes materials that the DEFENDANT may acquire, obtain or have access to after the execution of this agreement.

- f. If the DEFENDANT provides full, complete, truthful and substantial cooperation to the United States, which results in substantial assistance to the United States in the investigation or prosecution of another criminal offense, a decision specifically reserved by the United States in the exercise of its sole discretion, then the United States agrees to move for a downward departure in accordance with Section 5K1.1 of the United States Sentencing Guidelines or Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, whichever the United States deems applicable. The United States specifically reserves the right to make the decision relating to the extent of any such departure request made under this agreement based upon its evaluation of the nature and extent of the DEFENDANT's cooperation. The DEFENDANT understands that the United States will make no representation or promise with regard to the exact amount of reduction, if any, the United States might make in the event that it determines that the DEFENDANT has provided substantial assistance. The DEFENDANT understands that a mere interview with law enforcement authorities does not constitute substantial assistance for this purpose. The DEFENDANT also understands that should he provide untruthful information to the United States at any time, or should he fail to disclose material facts to the United States at any time, the United States will not make a motion for downward departure. If the DEFENDANT's effort to cooperate with the United States does not amount to substantial assistance as determined solely by the United States, the United States agrees to recommend to the district court judge who sentences the DEFENDANT that the DEFENDANT receive a sentence at the low end of the applicable advisory guideline range.

g. The United States and the DEFENDANT agree that any breach of this agreement by the DEFENDANT, including but not limited to committing a new offense, failing to cooperate, intentionally withholding information, giving false information, committing perjury, failing to identify assets obtained by him/her from his/her illegal activities or obtained by others associated with him/her or of which she has knowledge, refusing to take a polygraph examination, failing a polygraph examination, or refusing to testify before the grand jury or at any judicial proceeding, would:

- (1) permit the United States to reinstate and proceed with prosecution on any other charges arising from the matters underlying the Indictment; and
- (2) permit the United States to instigate and proceed with the prosecution on any other charges arising from a breach of this agreement. The United States will not be limited, in any respect, in the use it may make against the DEFENDANT of any information provided by the DEFENDANT during his/her breached cooperation. Such breach will constitute a waiver of any claim the DEFENDANT could make under the United States Constitution, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, or any statute or case law by which the DEFENDANT seeks to suppress the use of such information or any evidence derived from such information.

- h. Nothing in this agreement shall protect the DEFENDANT in any way from prosecution for any offense committed after the date of this agreement, including perjury, false declaration, false statement, and obstruction of justice, should the DEFENDANT commit any of these offenses during his/her cooperation. The DEFENDANT acknowledges and agrees that the information and documents that she discloses to the United States pursuant to this agreement may be used against him/her in any such prosecution.

LIMITED WAIVER OF RIGHT TO APPEAL SENTENCE

18. The defendant acknowledges that she is aware that 18 U.S.C. § 3742 affords a defendant the right to appeal the sentence imposed. In exchange for the recommendations made by the United States in this Plea Agreement, the defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives the right to appeal any sentence imposed in this case.

19. With the limited exceptions noted below, the defendant also waives his right to challenge any sentence so imposed, or the manner in which it was determined, in any collateral attack, including but not limited to, a motion brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.

20. The defendant reserves the right to contest in an appeal or post-conviction proceeding any of the following:

- a. Any punishment imposed in excess of the statutory maximum;
- b. Any punishment that constitutes an upward departure from the guideline range;
- or
- c. A claim of ineffective assistance of counsel.

21. In addition, the defendant reserves the right to petition the Court for resentencing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582 in the event of a future retroactive amendment to the Sentencing Guidelines which would affect the defendant's sentence.

VIOLATION OF AGREEMENT

22. The defendant understands that if he violates any provision of this agreement, the United States will be free from any obligations imposed by this agreement and will be free to prosecute the defendant on any charges of which it has knowledge. In such event, the defendant agrees not to assert any objections to prosecution that he might have under the 6th Amendment and/or Speedy Trial Act.

23. In addition, if the defendant is released from detention prior to sentencing, he understands that the United States will no longer be bound by this agreement if he violates any condition of his release prior to sentencing or prior to serving his sentence after it is imposed.

ENTIRETY OF AGREEMENT

24. This document is the complete statement of the agreement between the defendant and the United States and may not be altered unless done so in writing and signed by all the parties.

CRIMINAL NO. 06-00118-CG

FACTUAL RESUME

The defendant, ANTONIO HARRISON admits the allegations of Count One and Five of the Indictment.

ELEMENTS OF THE OFFENSE

HARRISON understands that in order to prove a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343, Wire Fraud, as charged in Count One of the Indictment, the United States must prove that:

1. The Defendant knowingly executed or attempted to execute a scheme or artifice;
2. Transmitted or caused to be transmitted a signal, by wire,
3. In interstate commerce;
4. For the purpose of executing such scheme or artifice.
5. This violation affects a financial institution.

HARRISON understands that in order to prove a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1014, fraudulent loan application, as charged in Count Five of the Indictment, the United States must prove that:

1. That the defendant knowingly made a false statement or report to the financial institution described in the indictment.
2. That the deposits of the institution were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; and

3. That the defendant submitted a false statement or report willfully and with intent to influence the action of the institution upon an application, advance, commitment or loan, or any change or extension thereof.

OFFENSE CONDUCT

The defendant admits that the United States could prove the following facts beyond a reasonable doubt:

ANTONIO HARRISON was recruited to work at Carteret Mortgage by Darlene Hill. As part of that employment, he would process loan applications and submit them for approval by various financial institutions. Harrison would receive loan packages from Darlene Hill. Harrison did not verify the information contained in the packages even though Harrison was informed that Hill's deals were "bad". Harrison left Carteret Mortgage and went to work with Allfund Mortgage.

While at Allfund Mortgage, he continued to process loan packages provided by Hill. As the loan broker he is responsible for the validity of the loan package which requires verifying the information contained in the loan applications. Harrison assured lenders that he had verified the loan application.

Harrison learned that Sylvan Ross Properties was a company set up by Darlene Hill to purchase properties using "credit investors", that is a someone with a good credit score was recruited to obtain a mortgage for Darlene Hill. The fraudulent loan packet was then submitted to Regions Bank dba Regions mortgage. That person would receive a fee or bonus for being a straw purchaser. Hill was to make the mortgage payments for the property and attempt to flip the property for a profit. Jocelyn Easter conducted most of these closings. Harrison submitted these fraudulent applications to Regions Bank dba Regions Mortgage. In exchange, he was paid outside the closing by Hill and the final files were not sent to Allfund Mortgage. Harrison also learned that as part of the scheme, Hill would transfer property to another purchaser and would not pay off the original mortgage.

Specifically, between September 17 through November 17 2005, Harrison submitted a fraudulent loan application for a straw purchaser provided by Darlene Hill in order to influence Regions Bank dba Regions Mortgage, a FDIC insured institution, to provide a $202500 mortgage. As a consequence, on November 17, 2005, Harrison caused Regions Mortgage, to transfer by wire $202,500 in interstate commerce to Gulf Federal Bank account no. 016 010 811 004.

The total amount of fraud for which the defendant should be held accountable is $996,000.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED.
